

LINCOLN CITY FOOTBALL CLUB

AWAY FAN & NEW VISITOR GUIDE

WELCOME

The ProAmpac Stadium has been the home of Lincoln City Football Club, also known as the Imps, since 1895.

The club's nickname is taken from the legendary Lincoln Imp, found turned to stone by an angel in the rafters of Lincoln Cathedral.

Founded in 1884, the Imps were officially named as an amateur association despite playing as a team since the 1860s. The club's most famous former player is Graham Taylor, who also managed Lincoln City between 1971 and 1977.

We are passionate about providing meaningful interaction with home and away supporters - you can view our fan engagement plan here.

We hope you enjoy your visit to Lincoln and enjoy the game at the ProAmpac Stadium!

If you have any questions please email slo@theredimps.com

THINGS TO DO

Lincoln has so much to offer, so make sure you explore the whole city when visiting for the football. Here are our top five things to do when in the city:

Lincoln Cathedral

The Cathedral can be seen from miles around, and even from the stands at ProAmpac Stadium. Explore what was once the tallest building in the world – a place of beauty and tranquillity. Don't forget to look out for the gargoyles outside, and the famous Lincoln Imp inside, from whom Lincoln City FC take their nickname.

Lincoln Castle

The Castle on the hill was built by William the Conqueror to defend any future invasions of England. And it has stood strong ever since, even in the face of two Battles of Lincoln. Today it holds events, is home to a 1215 copy of Magna Carta, and you can walk the entire walls with stunning views across the city. Can you spot the stadium to the south?

Steep Hill

One of the most famous hills in England connects the busy city centre to the cobbled Cathedral Quarter of Lincoln! But, fear not, there are plenty of unique shops, tea rooms, coffee houses, and historic pubs along the way to give you a rest and keep you refreshed. And don't forget to pick up your "I Climbed Steep Hill" souvenir at the Visitor Information Centre at the top!

Brayford Waterfront

The ProAmpac Stadium is found alongside one of the city's many waterways, the most famous of which is the Brayford Pool. Close to the city centre, the Waterfront is the perfect base for a day in Lincoln with restaurants, pubs, coffee shops, and a cinema for entertainment. You can also take a boat trip to explore more of the area or stay overnight with views from the 4th floor at one of the waterfront hotels.

International Bomber Command Centre

You will often hear echoes of Lincoln's Royal Air Force past in the stands at ProAmpac Stadium as air raid sirens and the Dam Busters theme are sung by home support. Discover this heritage for yourself just a 20 minute walk away past the South Common at the International Bomber Command Centre. The poignant memorial spire and walls are accompanied by a fascinating exhibition to remember more than 50,000 servicemen and women who died serving Bomber Command in WWII – many based in the county.
